

General terms and conditions

Personal data: By registering for the Fide French test, you authorize the test center concerned to transmit to the Fide Secretariat the personal data necessary for the conduct and evaluation of the Fide test, as well as for the creation of the Language Passport.

Registration and payment: Payment is due in full at the time of registration. Those wishing to take the full test must attend the same session for both parts of the test. You will be notified by e-mail and by post to confirm your registration at least 15 days before the test date.

Cancellation: In case of cancellation before the closing date for registration, the registration can be reimbursed or moved to another date, provided that a cancellation fee of 50 CHF is paid on site. In the event of cancellation after the closing date, late arrival or exclusion for non-compliance with the rules on the day of the test, no fee will be refunded, except upon presentation of a medical certificate within 3 days of the test date.

Publication of results: The Fide Secretariat will send you the results of the test and your Language Passport by mail, no later than 5 weeks after the test date.

COVID-19 measures: Fide test participants must present a COVID certificate attesting to a vaccination, a recovery from infection or a negative PCR test (3G). Without a certificate, the possibility to take the test will be denied and no refund of the registration fee will be made.
